

18/12/2005 – H.E. Mr. Ambassador Ismael Gaspar Martins and his wife Mrs. Gaspar Martins, held a small reception at the Angolan Official Residence, in Goose Lake, together with all members of staff of the Permanent Mission of Angola to the United Nations and their families to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ (Christmas). The Ambassador appealed to all families to continue to be united for the challenges ahead of Angola. The event was also attended by other invitees.

