

Foreign Relations

Since 1991, the Armenian Government has moved quickly and effectively to establish friendly and close diplomatic and economic ties with the outside world. Over 50 countries have officially established diplomatic relations.

Many countries have established diplomatic relations with Armenia. Fifteen of these states have opened embassies in Armenia. They are: the Arab Republic of Egypt, the People's Republic of China, the French Republic, Georgia, the Federal Republic of Germany, Greece / Hellenic Republic, the Republic of India, the Islamic Republic of Iran, the Lebanese Republic, Romania, the Russian Federation, the Syrian Arab Republic, Ukraine, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America.

Over 50 states have ambassadors and charges d'Affaires accredited to the Republic of Armenia, but with representation outside of Armenia. (See Ambassadors and Charges d'Affaires Appointed and Accredited to Armenia, With Representation in Armenia, and Honorary Consulates to the Republic of Armenia.)

Armenia has a permanent presence (embassy, consulate, or representation) in over 40 countries of North and South America, Europe, Africa, Asia, Australia, and the Newly Independent States. (See Embassies of Armenia and Honorary and General Consulates of Armenia.)
